Honest

Xan Young

It's all angelic
we've got it wired
The sands took fire
it's never heard
It's started slowly
like a blur
Now it's rushing faster
cause it's never slowed

But I want your good and your bad
I want your love and your sad
I want your high and your lowww

I know that we got something real
You give it something I can't feel
You've always got another deal
But baby just because you're real
Because you're real
Yeahh

All these fakers
And common lads
Show your lovin
Avert their eyes
Beauty is honest
It cannot hide
Something deeper
in your eyes

But I want your good and your bad
I want your love and your sad
And I want your dark and your white

I know that we got something real
You give it something I can't feel
You've always got another deal
But baby just because you're real
Because you're real
Yeahhh

I know that we've got something real
You give it something I can't feel
You've always got another deal
But baby just because you're real
Because you're real
Yeahh
