

God, If You Are Above...

Falling in Reverse

God cannot save my soul
It's straight to hell for me I know
And when I get there
At least I found a place to call my home
They say the truth will set you free
Then why am I still here?
I've got no truth left, don't you see
Am I making myself clear? Resolution, no solution God, if you are above
I fear that one day the whole world will disappear
And if it does, will I have lived my life
The way that I could, the way that I should The spirit's stuck between two roads and waiting there on me
The first path is the way to go, the life I want to lead
The second road's my crazy past
The darkest points I've tried to mask
The drugs, the guns, the lies, the lows
The dreams I had of waking up Resolution, no solution God, if you are above
I fear that one day the whole world will disappear
And if it does, will I have lived my life
The way that I could, the way that I should Don't tell me I'm not worth the time
I will be fine
All these prayers have gone unanswered
Where were you?
(Where were you?! ) God, if you are above
I fear that one day the whole world will disappear
And if it does, will I have lived my life
The way that I could, the way that I should God, if you are above
I fear that one day the whole world will disappear
And if it does, will I have lived my life
The way that I could, the way that I should
