Go Blank

The Explosion

Go blank, go blank, go blank go
Go blank, go blank, go blank go
Go blank, go blank and start againGo blank, go blank, go blank go
Go blank, go blank, go blank go
Go blank, go blank and start againThis time it feels like the walls are closing in Distress always happens, happiness so distant
Feel the beating heart the pulse of what is next?
Sometimes time is such a threat, we're all a part of one big testGo blank, go blank, go blank go
Go blank, go blank, go blank go
Go blank, go blank and start againGo blank, go blank, go blank go
Go blank, go blank, go blank go
Go blank, go blank and start againInsecurity takes its toll on me
I hope and pray for meaning and I try to have some strength
These words I cannot find and this page I cannot read
Why do I do these things? Why do I do these things?Go blank, go blank, go blank go
Go blank, go blank, go blank go
Go blank, go blank and start againGo blank, go blank, go blank go
Go blank, go blank, go blank go
Go blank, go blank and start againA mess is made again I wish I could say to you
That it will be alright again
The world will turn my friend, if we could find some freedom
From what we have done and what we never didGo blank, go blank, go blank go
Go blank, go blank, go blank go
Go blank, go blank and start againGo blank, go blank, go blank go
Go blank, go blank, go blank go
Go blank, go blank and start againGo blank, go blank, go blank go
Go blank, go blank, go blank go
Go blank, go blank and start againGo blank, go blank, go blank go
Go blank, go blank, go blank go
Go blank, go blank and start again
