

I Think It Was Love

Josephine

Baby baby, what's the reason that I called you here
I think it was love, love love
I think it was love, love love
It is essential and now you know this it's so much in here, but undone especially love, love love
especially love, love love.
And I know you're cautious,
I know you're scared
the free have love, love love.
there's nothing else, we did Oh baby baby, come too far too fight, we're living for and I know you folded it here with me because without love, love love.
Baby baby, what's the reason that I called you here
I think it was love, love love
I think it was love, love love
