Fields & Fences

Yellowcard

Looking for something to wake in my soul
It seems like it's singing stopped cold
I got used to being the star of the show but I've seen the lights come and go
I heard a song playing blood by the wind
I got got myself lost then I found you again Tennessee when I finally lay down to sleep then I'll rest in your ground but these days the world is against usso keep me safe with your fields and fences around me
I wanna start living I wanna be brave
I wanna find where I belong
Cause I still remember the reasons I write Things that I've dreamed for so long
I heard a song playing blood by the windI got myself lost then I found you again Tennessee when I finally lie down to sleep then I'll rest in your ground but these days the world is against us so keep me safe with your fields and fences around me around me around meI don't have much that I can give to you but I know I love the way you make me feel like I'm at home and I am not alone
I don't have much that I can give to you but I know I love the way you make me feel like I'm at home and I am not alone
I don't have much that I can give to you but I know I love the way you make me feel like I'm at home and I am not alone
I don't have much that I can give to you but I know I love the way you make me feel like I'm at home and I am not alone
