

Beyond Me (Remaster) [feat. Sharon Den Adel]

After Forever

I know I'm alone, but somebody's watching me
Follows me everywhere I go
A cold flow surprised me again, I shiver
The presence of something I can hear it's breathing
Leave me alone, wherever you came from
Hearing so much voices, no one's talking
Oh leave me alone
Leave me alone, wherever you came from
Hearing so much voices, no one's talking
Waiting for something, nothing in the black of the night
Creeps around you, the invisible force that makes you crazy
I can't remember how it feels to be warm, to be alone...
Without that fear deep inside me
Cons of death float on beyond me
Whispering my name and breathing my fear...
The menace of insanity
Inner voices cry out for action
Defenceless as I am
Lost in the alleged paradise
I'm not sure if I am here or elsewhere
Searching for satisfaction
Beyond the frontiers of my comprehension
Leave me alone, wherever you came from
Hearing so much voices, no one's talking
Leave me alone, wherever you came from
Hearing so much voices, no one's talking
Oh leave me alone
