Follow the Sun

James McLean & A. Void

Trying to explain how,how I feel but no, there's no escape so,I'll grab my keys, I will follow the sun till i see you again till the dust fulls my thoughts i'll keep driven till the end till my broken heart will mend, see can the sounds now I can't move on, No more this wasn't are plan, How did we get this so long,i'll follow the sun till I see you again till the dust fulls my thoughts i'll keep driven till the end till my broken heart will mend i'll keep driven on i'll keep driven i'll keep driven on i'll keep driven i'll keep driven on i'll keep driven i'll keep driven on i'll keep driven i'll keep driven on i'll keep driven i'll keep driven on i'll keep driven
