

Hey Kids (Non-Album Track)

Jet

Hey Kids,
You did it all yourselves
You never changed the world
So what'cha think about that? Hey Dad,
The suit is on your back
So take your boots off my neck
And get back to your money stack Hey kids fake it,
I saw you wearin' flares
Turned that to shit
You used to have long hair Hey old man,
Remember Vietnam
Ya hated Vietnam
And now you love Uncle Sam Hey kids,
Did you get your kicks
And now you're gettin' old
You're gonna catch on quick Hey kids,
You'll never change the world
Hey kids,
You'll never change the world at all
Hey kids,
You'll never change the world at all
Hey kids,
You'll never change the world at all Yeah Hey kids,
You'll never change the world at all
Hey kids,
You'll never change the world at all
Hey kids,
You'll never change the world at all
Hey kids,
You'll never change the world at all
