Matter

Bazil

Boy, I'm in love with you and it ain't gon' go away
You got somebody who just ain't gon' cut it, mayne
She don't do what I do, she on her own thing
I wanna look out for you, do all the things she can't
No, do she wash your clothes?
No, do she cook and clean for you, baby?
Oh no, she don't fill the shoes
No and she don't love you
If she don't love you as much as I do
She don't matter, no matter, no, matter, no, matter, no
Matter, no, matter, no, don't matter to me, no
If she don't want you as much as I do
Then she don't matter, no, matter, no, matter, no, matter, no
Matter, no, matter, no, don't matter to me
She don't love you
You say it's gon' be cool, I'm caught in such a dazes
Torn in between us two, why can't we make amends?
I know I crossed the line but boy you let me go
Knowing what I know now I shoulda left it so
Do she really know you, know you?
I wanna know you, you, you, yeah
She don't fill the shoes, I want you to choose
Don't want you to lose me, yeah I want you to choose me, yeah
I'm tryna get you to see that she don't love you as much as me
If she don't love you as much as I do
She don't matter, no, matter, no, matter, no, matter, no
Matter, no, matter, no, don't matter to me, no
If she don't want you as much as I do
Then she don't matter, no, matter, no, matter, no, matter, no
Matter, no, matter, no, don't matter to me
She don't love you
If there's one thing in this world
That I know for sure it's that I want you more than her
See we both know, I can't deny
'Cause boy I need you in my life
I need you in my life, life, life
I don't wanna say goodbye, bye, bye
Give this love a try, try, try
I'll give you what you want, I'll be your everything

If she don't love you as much as I do
She don't matter, no, matter, no, matter, no, matter, no
Matter, no, matter, no, don't matter to me, no
If she don't want you as much as I do
Then she don't matter, no, matter, no, matter, no, matter, no
Matter, no, matter, no, don't matter to me
She don't love you
