You Were On My Mind This Morning

Hot Rize

You were on my mind this morning, you were on my mind today.
We had our good times together, we sure had our special ways.
I guess those happy days are gone now, just like water through my hands.
Wonder if I'll ever see you, ever kiss your lips again.If you hear me and I'm singing, some old lonesome song like this.
You'll know I'm not over you and I am longing for your kiss.
Wish that I could linger longer, sit down in some evening shade.
But you know I have to ramble, guess that's just the way I'm made.You were on my mind this morning, you were on my mind today.
We had our good times together, we sure had our special ways.Things were going good and I was flush and I was fancified.
Threw it all away on women, whiskey, cards, dice, and wine.
I will roll and I will tumble, I will rise and fall again.
Ridin' on this roller coaster, doesn't ever seem to end.I will leave this town this mornin', I will leave this town today.
If I thought you'd have me back, I would soon be on my way.
The lame would get up, start to walkin' and the blind would somehow see.
If ever I forgot about you, all the things you meant to me.You were on my mind this morning, you were on my mind today.
We had our good times together, we sure had our special ways.
