

Atonement

Defeater

I've been slipping away
I've been losing the days
I've been letting my vices take from me
    No holy spirit, no resurrection
I've been hoping of death, (...) it's left
    Years of heartache and guilt haunting my sleep
No holy spirit, no salvationHopeless and abandoned
    Hopeless and abandoned
    Been waiting, a lifetime to hear that voice
Speaking quiet and low, carries the weight of the world
    I can hear him helpless between words
Been paying a lifelong sins penanceSpeaking quiet and low, lay down the weight of the world
    Find some solace and comfort in the word
    What brings you here my son
What brings you here my sonHopeless and abandoned
    Hopeless and abandoned
    I've been slipping away
    I've been losing the days
I've been letting the needle bleed from me
    No holy spirit, no resurrection
I've been hoping of death, (...) it's left
    Years of heartache and guilt haunting my sleep
No holy spirit, no salvationHopeless and abandoned
    Hopeless and abandoned
