another day and I'm late and I finally go and I find a way I always say to engrave the mind and outshine yesterday's praise in every way I find I'm growing gray and I could die any day hope the time of mine I spend with you is gonna dissipate

Chorus

if I fight to go you fight to stay
just to complicate if I'm sayin' no you say that I'm just a big mistake but I'll never win an argument today another day just the same if I spend it with you I'm gonna go insane

I feel the flames and the chains and the weight of the world I guess I'm under paid another time and my mind keep showing up it keeps bringing me down if I let win again
I'm gonna be the old cliché

Chorus
