Avantasia

Avantasia

Open my eyes and see my bleeding wounded hands
Feeling the pain too hard to stand, to stand
Caught in the now and here while they are on the way
Hiding imagination, leading us astray
Use your mind
You will leave the flesh dimensions behind
Sanity can be the toll
Leading to the core of your soul
We are the power inside, we bring you fantasy
We are the kingdom of light and dreams
Gnosis and life, Avantasia
We are the power inside, we bring you fantasy
We are the kingdom of light and dreams
Gnosis and life, Avantasia, Avantasia
Walking along the icy gallery of pain
Tell me now, what can keep the flame alive?
Lack of imagination, raising up the tower
Where they hold our souls to take away the tower
Use your mind
You will leave the flesh dimensions behind
Sanity can be the toll

Leading to the core of your soul
We are the power inside, we bring you fantasy
We are the kingdom of light and dreams
Gnosis and life, Avantasia
We are the power inside, we bring you fantasy
We are the kingdom of light and dreams
Gnosis and life, Avantasia
We are the power inside, we bring you fantasy
We are the kingdom of light and dreams
Gnosis and life, Avantasia
We are the power inside, we bring you fantasy
We are the kingdom of light and dreams
Gnosis and life, Avantasia
We are the power inside, we bring you fantasy
We are the kingdom of light and dreams
Gnosis and life, Avantasia
We are the power inside, we bring you fantasy

We are the kingdom of light and dreams
Gnosis and life, Avantasia
