

Maybe Its Maybeline

Relient K

People make mistakes
Finally everything breaks
And it always is the same
Gotta find someone to blame 'Cause these errors that we make
'Cause we're all human earthquakes
Yeah, we made the hurricane
Yet we're not the one's to blame go We point the finger even though it's not polite
We condemn the Son of God
We're hoping two wrongs make a right
Maybe it is them or, maybe it is me
Or maybe it's Maybeline or maybe it's Maybeline
Maybe it is them or, maybe it is me
Or maybe it's Maybeline or maybe it's Maybeline People make mistakes
We took the apple from the snake
And it always is the same
Gotta find someone to blame Our reputations were at stake
But the guilt we could not take
America's gone down the drain
President's fault again We point the finger even though it's not polite
We condemn the Son of God
We're hoping two wrongs make a right
Maybe it is them or, maybe it is me
Or maybe it's Maybeline or maybe it's Maybeline
Maybe it is them or, maybe it is me
Or maybe it's Maybeline or maybe it's Maybeline The truth is, excuses are lame
Accept consequence, accept the blame
We're all sinners, we're all unclean
Maybe we're born with it or maybe it's Maybeline Oh, maybe it is them
Or maybe it is me
Or maybe it's Maybeline
Or maybe it's Maybeline
