

Find Yourself Alone

Ken Stringfellow

Drink up and pay and it's time to move on
This place is dying and they've turned the lights on Nobody wants to hear the ravings of a bad drunk
They're afraid he'll speak their minds and sayThat you'll find yourself alone
 No matter who lives in your home
You better find yourself aloneMy life's a car wreck on the side of the road
 Say nothing but you can't turn away
 Not a pleasant subject, so I don't blame you for turning away
 It's the least you could do anyway
 Then you find yourself alone
 No matter who lives in your home
You better find yourself alone'Cause it doesn't matter--who you are No it doesn't matter--what you make
 Stand on your own or say goodbye
 GoodbyeI watch myself laying on the floor
 If there's pain here I can't feel it no more
 If you're beautiful, if you're young
 If your talents exceed your faults
 Here's a reason to be selfish
 You'll find yourself alone
 No matter who lives in your home
You better find yourself aloneCause you'll find yourself alone
 No matter who lives in your home
 You better find yourself alone

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnlrics.com/>