

Brand New Scar

Mad Caddies

Woke up this morning on the wrong side of town to someone I'd never seen, and a room I guess we found the last few days playing back in my head I know the price I'm gonna pay for all the things that I said two hearts beating, but our love is fleeting yeah it's done yeah we had fun but I can't give you all of my heart when we both know that it's falling apart I lost in love again thrown out into the world, I'm fighting at the bar instead of fighting for my girl
I got a brand new scar I'm down another friend, I'll drink until she's gone I lost in love again. I'm walking backwards through the valley of time, you know I need a new direction I need a new state of mind with half my heart it was all she could stand, with one foot out the door I was half of a man Two hearts beating our love was fleeting yeah it's done and we had fun but I can't get it out of my mind baby we're both just wasting our time I lost in love again thrown out into the world,
I'm fighting at the bar instead of fighting for my girl
I got a brand new scar I'm down another friend, I'll drink until she's gone I lost in love again. Went by the house to see if you were around found a note on the door and all my shit on the ground dear honey baby never wanted it this way I guess all I got to say: I lost in love again thrown out into the world,
I'm fighting at the bar instead of fighting for my girl
I got a brand new scar I'm down another friend, I'll drink until she's gone I lost in love again. I lost in love again thrown out into the world,
I'm fighting at the bar instead of fighting for my girl
I got a brand new scar I'm down another friend,
I'll drink until she's gone I lost in love again.
