

Day One

Madeline Juno

He said: "Give it all, give it all you got. Replay, replay and rewind it"
That one night out there, out in the dark, when he said: "Wait, wait for my heart" I, I know you
I, I know the truth
I've been waiting for so long
And now come back home cause You don't even know that I missed you from day one (from day one)
You don't even know that I'm counting days ever since you're gone
And you and I could sit and watch the night sky
Until then I'll hope to see you in my sleep Oh-oh-oh-oh-oh-oh He said: "Oh girl, stop watching your life like, watching your life like a movie"
Just give it some time and you'll see we'll be life's sweet melody, oh I, I know you
I, I know you cry
Cause you've been waiting for so long
And now come back home cause You don't even know that I missed you from day one (from day one)
You don't even know that I'm counting days ever since you're gone
And you and I could sit and watch the night sky
Until then I'll hope to see you As long as it takes I'll be standing still I won't make a sound
The silence is so loud
Come and save me
Come and hold me
Ooooooh Did you even know that I missed you from day one (from day one)
Did you even know that I'm counting days ever since you're gone
And you and I could sit and watch the night sky
Until then I'll hope to see you in my sleep
Oh-oh-oh-oh-oh-oh
Oh-oh-oh-oh-oh-oh
