Know This, We've Noticed

An Horse

You're a fire in my mind
But you're out of bounds (And you're out of bounds)
And that is fine (But that is fine)
I don't know why this started off like we do
But I know we've got better things to do
To do
To do
To doBut know this, we've noticed
I've noticed that you're not fineThere's that moment that it all ends again
I haven't forgotten a single one
I look out for you
Oh I swear I do
But I think everyone's lost their minds
Their minds
Their minds
Their mindsBut know this, we've noticed
I've noticed that you're not fine
But know this, we've noticed
I've noticed that you're not fineKnow this; we've noticed that you're not fine
Know this; we've noticed that you're not fine
Know this; we've noticed that you're not fine
Know this; we've noticed that you're not fineDo this before with everyone
We all take our turn and you're never there
I crawl around and in a little voice
To talk to you, to find you
I crawl around and in a little voice
To talk to you, to find youI crawl around, I crawl around 'til I find you
I crawl around, I crawl around 'til I find you
I crawl around, I crawl around 'til I find you
I crawl around, I crawl around 'til I find youKnow this; we've noticed that you're not fine
Know this; we've noticed that you're not fine
Know this; we've noticed
That you're not fine
Know this; we've noticed
That you're not fineKnow this; we've noticed that you're not fine
Know this; we've noticed that you're not fine
Know this; we've noticed that you're not fine
Know this; we've noticed that you're not fineKnow this; we've noticed that you're not fine
Know this; we've noticed that you're not fine

Know this; we've noticed that you're not fine
Know this; we've noticed that you're not fine
Know this; we've noticed that you're not fine
Know this; we've noticed that you're not fine
Know this; we've noticed that you're not fine
Know this; we've noticed that you're not fine
Fine
Fine
FineThere's that moment that it all ends again
I haven't forgotten a single one
