

Another Life

Rollins Band

You must think you're going to live forever
You must think that you are mighty clever
I listen to the lies as they fall from your face
Can't you find a better way to deal with this place Watching your life die
We're all watching your life die
Your hands are wet - Your mouth is dry
You shake and sweat - You want to die
You're so young - But you look so old
Your eyes are hot - Your skin is cold
Lie in bed all day staring at the ceiling
Your friends come around Because they wonder how you're feeling
You send them all away
Because you can't identify
So high
They don't know you
They're not even high to you smiling. Day after day the monkey's eyes become bigger and See the monkey's eyes. Look deep into the monkey's eyes as he comes bigger. Soon the monkey's eyes are all you can see. Soon the monkey's eyes become your eyes. You feel the monkey's bite. Monkey see monkey do, monkey will destroy you. I know what I'd wish for you
If I could make wishes true
Another life
Another life for you
