

Let Me Just Follow Behind (2015 Remastered)

Bette Midler

Oh, to have you walking so near
You're an angel, my dear
And you ease my mind
I'll not kiss or hold you, my dear
Would you let me just follow behind
Now, I have loved me many fine men
Oh, so many fine men
Had a bed to share
I would trade these lovers gladly, my friend
For a glimpse of you standing there
How will I know when I reach heaven's door?
In your eyes, I've seen it before
If I never, never, never, never see you again
Though the path it may bend
And be filled with strife
Though the years may come and go without end
I will think of you all of my life
How will I know when I reach heaven's door?
In your eyes, I've seen heaven before
Oh, to have you walking so near
You're an angel, my dear
And you ease my mind
I'll not kiss or hold you, my dear
Would you let me just follow behind?
Hmm, hmm, hmm, hmm
Would you let me just follow behind?
