I Reach for You

Marc Anthony

Baby love, sometimes it's hard for me to tell you what I'm thinking of
So I try to find a way that I can show you love
What you mean to meIt's not enough to give you everything that you were ever dreaming of
I could never find a way that I could pay you love
For all the things you do'Cause when my life gets crazy
The only one who comforts me is you, is youWhen I'm feeling all alone
When I'm searching for someone I can run to
I reach for youWhen I need a hand to hold
Or a place where I can feel what love can do
I reach for youNeeding you is something that I've really gotten used to
I can't imagine being here with no one else
No one but youWhat I found is it doesn't get much better than when you're around
Having you is all I really need when I get down
You pull me through'Cause when my life gets crazy
The only one who comforts me is youWhen I'm feeling all alone
When I'm searching for someone I can run to
I reach for youWhen I need a hand to hold
Or a place where I can feel what love can do
I reach for you'Cause when my life gets crazy
The only one who comforts me is youWhen I'm feeling all alone
When I'm searching for someone I can run to
I reach for youWhen I need a hand to hold
Or a place where I can feel what love can do
I reach for youWhen I'm feeling all alone
When I'm searching for someone I can run to
I reach for youWhen I need a hand to hold
Or a place where I can feel what love can do
I reach for youWhen I'm feeling all alone
When I'm searching for someone I can run to
I reach for you
