

Ocean Spray

Manic Street Preachers

Me-totemo-utsukushi-i-desu-ne
Totemo-utsukushi-i-me-wo-shitemasuIt's easy to see, it's easy to see
To see only white, where color should be
It's easy to feel, it's easy to feel
But it's not good enough, even though it's realOh, please, stay awake
And then we can drink some Ocean Spray
Oh, please, stay awake
And then we can drink some Ocean SprayIt's easy to breathe, it's easy to grieve
To breathe only air, where life should be
It's easy to laugh, it's easy to cry
To cry so, so hard that it can't be deniedOh, please, stay awake
And then we can drink some Ocean Spray
Oh, please, stay awake
And then we can drink some Ocean SprayOh, please, stay awake
And then we can drink some Ocean Spray
Oh, please, stay awake
And then we can drink some Ocean Spray
