

The Wolfman Stole My Baby

The Frankenstein Drag Queens from Planet 13

He was a-howlin at the moon when he walked up to her yeah.. oh yeah.
And he whispered to her, i couldnt hear what he said
And then he whispered to her, i couldnt hear what he said
And then he whispered to her, i couldnt hear what he said And the Wolfman came and stole my baby
Yeah the Wolfman came and stole her away
Well, he took her, and thats what she gets
And nothing can save her now except for silver bullets He was a-lookin at her like she was the coolest thing he'd seen.. he'd seen
Yeah well,dont you know baby dont you know that the Wolfman only wants one thing... he wants one thing.. only wants...And the Wolfman came and stole my baby
Yeah the Wolfman came and stole her away
Well, he took her, and thats what she gets
And nothing can save her now except for silver bullets And the Wolfman came and stole my baby
Yeah the Wolfman came and stole her away
Well, he took her, and thats what she gets
And nothing can save her now except for silver bullets
