

Hellman

Millencolin

No matter what I feel for you
Those three words I can't say
I regret the times I used the word okay I know how much it means
When people show they really care
Of the value in honesty, I'm quite aware
But still there's much in me that I don't share Don't have the guts to say what I think
Well, I'm too scared
Don't have the guts to say what I think
Well, I'm too scared
Don't have the guts to say what I think
Well, I'm too scared to say what I think of you The other way around
I'd say, I function the same way
The darker sides of me I underplay Afraid to get into conflicts
Afraid to tell you no
Though I know this weakness keeps me low
There's so much inside me that I don't show Don't have the guts to say what I think
Well, I'm too scared
Don't have the guts to say what I think
Well, I'm too scared
Don't have the guts to say what I think
Well, I'm too scared to say what I think of you Somethings I can never show
Why I don't know, no, I don't know Don't have the guts to say what I think
(Don't have the guts to say)
Well, I'm too scared
Don't have the guts to say what I think
(Don't have the guts to say)
Well, I'm too scared Don't have the guts to say what I think
(Don't have the guts to say)
Well, I'm too scared to say what I think of you
(Don't have the guts to say)
Yeah, I'm too scared of what I'd really think of you
