

Yellow Pages

Alien Ant Farm

I've been looking through the yellow pages
It's almost blinding now
The color print leads you in the wrong direction
Close my eyes and flip the pages
I put my finger down and find you in the white
Tell me that I found you
All these names I've gone through
The fine print holds the answer
And I wanna know girl
I wanna know
Searching A through Z has got me twisted
I think I've lost my head
The paper cuts leave the proof that I have bled, yeah
So if you're looking too
You know I'm listed
Just open up the book
You can find me in the red
Tell me that I found you
All these names I've gone through
The fine print holds the answer
And I wanna know girl
I wanna know
I think I lost my head
You'll find me in the red
The cuts are proof that I have bled I think I lost my head
You'll find me in the red
The cuts are proof that I have bled
Tell me that I found you
All these names I've gone through
The fine print holds the answer
And I wanna know girl
I wanna know Tell me that I found you
I don't know girl
I wanna know
