

Yours is an Empty Hope (Orchestral Version)

Nightwish

Hack me into bits and join the sea
And screaming a bird of vanity
Chime in the words and you will know
Your time will only matter on the last bridge You have the world it's all for you
Our wish is side a hoax to you
Withhold all the pain make you swear your life
Can you feel it? I can make you want the truth cause'
I'll tell you Yours is an empty hope
Yours is an empty hope Feed me to pigs in your fantasies
Your sear well ban the vanities
Like narcissists who cross the rue
A hollow voice will arrest the roots Your life is now it's all for you
Turn from the hate, turn from the smoke
I see the parchment of the czar,
Their notes designed joined over I can let you have the world, all for you Yours is an empty hope
Yours is an empty hope Yours is an empty hope!
Yours is an join in now! I can let you have the world, all for you Yours is an empty hope
Yours is an empty hope
Yours is an empty hope
Yours is an empty hope
