Learning How to Fly

Tuck & Patti

Aaaaa oaiaiea
oaiaie
oweeee owa
Aaaaa oaiaiea
oaiaie
oweeee owaWhen your heart is low
Feel the breezes blow
It's all right
You just take your time
There's no hurry now
that you're on your way
When you're learning how to fly
No more wandering 'round,
step up off the ground
You will find
you can glide on by There's a magic place
that is just for you
When you're learning how to flyYou've always known that this was not
your home
You've been longing for that place
Where you would not feel so all alone
Well now that time
has come for you to fly away
Just breathe on in
then breathe on out
And you'll be on your way
Watch the ocean rise,
say your sad good-byes
Don't be shy,
go ahead and cry
There's a light to guide
and you're really on your way
Now you're learning how to flyNow you are flying,
rising, floating Sailing on this blissful ocean
Everything you've

always wanted now
Learning how to flyFreedom comes while you are soaring Far away from
cares and longing
Take this moment,
open up your eyes
You're learning how to flyYou've always known
that this was not
your home
Where you would not feel so all alone
Just breathe on in
And you'll be on your wayYou are higher now, feeling lighter now
So much joy,
you just have to go
Feel the greatest love
that you've ever ever known
When you're learning how to flyAaaaa oaiaiea
oaiaie
oweeee owa
Aaaaa oaiaiea
oaiaie
oweeee owa
