

So Much Nothing

Doll Skin

I feel so much everything
So now it feels like nothing Nothing feels real anymore.

Nothing is the same
I don't know how to feel anymore
I am no longer sane
At least im off those god forsaken pills
Now at least, at least I know its real
These tears that stream down my face
Are the only way I know I'm real.

I feel so much everything
So now it feels like nothing

I break
Breakin' me now youre breakin me
I break

You're breakin me now
I'm breaking This all feels like a scene from a movie reel
How else can things go so wrong
From point A to B im fucking up
I hope this wont last long I'm sitting here in catatonia

I don't know what to do
Everything here's so beautiful
My mind's so ugly, but whats new?
I feel so much everything
So now it feels like nothing

I break
Breakin' me now youre breakin me
I break

You're breakin me now
I'm breaking
