

Kickin' Around The Love

Brian Mcfadden

I get the feeling,
The track were on is never gonna end,
And its kind of my fault,
I feel an earthquakes coming
, And the shockwaves will bring us to a crashing halt,
It's the little things that scare the life right out of you,
You should of seen it coming,
And all it takes is a tragedy one big bite of reality,
I want you, to need me, I want to be everything you like,
I could be the only one again, kickin' around the love again,
I could be getting it back to how we were when we began,
I want you, to need me, I want to be everything you like,
I could be the only one again, kickin' around the love again,
I could be getting it back to how we were when we began.
God knows you tried to revive it but im stubborn,
And it takes a lot to change my mind,
If only we could ignore it just, keep all our trouble and our past behind.

And all we need is a tragedy to bring us back reality,
I want you, to need me, I want to be everything you like,
I could be the only one again, kickin' around the love again,
I could be getting it back to how we were when we began,
I want you, to need me, I want to be everything you like,
I could be the only one again, kickin' around the love again,
I could be getting it back to how we were when we began.
Kickin' around the, kickin' around the, kickin' around the, the love around
Kickin' around the, kickin' around the, kickin' around the, the love, love
Kickin' around the, kickin' around the, kickin' around the, the love?.
I want you, to need me, I want to be everything you like,
I could be the only one again, kickin' around the love again,
I could be getting it back to how we were when we began,
I want you, to need me, I want to be everything you like,
I could be the only one again, kickin' around the love again,
I could be getting it back to how we were when we began.
