Crestfallen

Gadget

So I sit and wait for time to pass for you to brake these chords bless me with distortionI stay up Wait for things to change Hoping for that single call
To tell me I'm okWill you slay me?
Will you let go (already)
I can't cope this
I am fadingI walk in circles, forever Charging up everything pass me by I am the liar, in this deception
As well as the deceived open up Shut me in
I need you, now get out
