Kolohe Kai

Good morning Hawai'i
I been waiting for you
The sun is rising, rising now
I see you rising tooEverybody's waking
They're on their way
All because you're waking
A new Hawaiian dayCHORUS:
Good morning Hawaii
You have been sleeping for too long
Good morning Hawaii
You are the empress of my heart
Why don't you Wake up wake up x2You..yeah you see opening your eyes Color in the sky so nice and when you enter to the room
Everything begins to bloomYour mountains keep me smiling oooh
Your oceans keep me cool yea
People come and see these islands
To catch a glimpse of youBack to chorus..BRIDGE:
The moment you start rising
Everything begins to breathe
Here's a message to our island
We love you Hawaii
We love you can you see
