

Black River

Paul Weller

Black river
Black river The story's still unfolding and like the river rolling
It's always moving like a tide
Seemingly unchanging
But of course nothing stays the same, you'll see Black river
Black river
Black river And if I scratch the surface and try to look to learn it
Oh, what fantastic worlds I'll find
Stay with me forever
Buried deep inside my mind, you'll see Sha, la, la, la, la
I'm casting out my line
Although it's floating by
Who knows what I'll find, we'll see It's early in the morning, I watched a raindrop falling
So slim and tender from a leaf
It stays with me forever
Buried deep inside of me, you'll see Black river
Black river
Black river Black river
Black river
Black river
You drifter
