

Here Comes Trouble

Jennifer Leonhardt

here comes trouble to turn my day all around here comes trouble to turn my world upside down here you come walking like it's no big deal you got me spinning like a big stupid wheel like a wheel in trouble

chorus

yeah here comes trouble to make my nighttime day here comes trouble to take all my trouble away here comes trouble to turn all my bright skies blue and on the double turn my fortunes to rue put my whole attention entire on you you got me turning on my foolish heel on my heel for trouble

bridge and maybe there's a lazy day or two for lying underneath a citrus tree or wishing on a number of daisy-petal'd clover hoping the time won't pass away, for aye here comes trouble just when things get put right yeah there's that trouble to make sure we still got fight and if you're halfway or not strung true or you're blowing like a curtain you're like some ole dumb shoe or you're thrown all off by beauty or an opportune you're sittin' on the fence about the whole she-boo better get yourself to cover cause its coming for you yeah here comes trouble to make more trouble for you you know you want it to come on now trouble what ya gonna do
