Once Upon a Summertime

Qypthone

Once upon a summertime, if you recall
We stopped beside a little flower stall
A bunch of bright forget-me-nots
Was all I'd ever let you buy meOnce upon a summertime just like today
We laughed the happy afternoon away
And stole a kiss at every street cafeYou were sweeter than the blossoms on the tree
I was as proud as any girl could be
As if the mayor had offered me the key
To ParisNow another winter time has come and gone
The pigeons feeding in the square have flown
But I remember when the vespers chimed
You loved me once upon a summertimeNow another winter time has come and gone
The pigeons feeding in the square have flown
But I remember when the vespers chimed
You loved me once upon a summertime
