HITOKI-PIRANHAHEADS

How do you sleep at night father, with what you've done to me?
How do you make it through the day,
knowing your dead in me?
City lights can't be the answer,
(some day, some way)
Broken hearted filled with anger,
(father, too late)
Hiding out but now it's over,
(walking, no way)
Dead inside wont get much better,
(some day, some way)
And try to justify,
All the things we have inside,
(You never will...)
And try to comprehend,
All the things I have in mind,
(you never will...)
Cause morselin has never been,
So tempting as it is right now,
My mind devours,
Thoughts of you,
To Justify the pain inside,
And dont you think it hurts me?
When I think about the past,
And how i realise im empty,
I'll be there is what you told me dad,
I waited as a child,
I waited 19 years,
Iv'e lived outside the window,
To see if you were getting here,
I said mother don't worry,
I'll take my fathers place,
I'll be the man i should be,
I'll put a smile upon your face,
I'll try to justify,
All the things you have inside,
(You never will...)
And try to comprehend,

All the things I have in mind,
(you never will...)
Cause morselin has never been,

So Tempting as it is right now,
My mind devours,
Thoughts of you,
To Justify the pain inside,
And dont you think it hurts me?
When I think about past,
And how I realise im empty,
I'll be there is what you told me dad,

To see if u were getting here,

I'll try to justify,
All the things you hide inside,
(You never will...)
And try to comprehend,
All the things I have in mind,
(you never will...)
And try to understand,
All the things we have inside,
(You never will...)
Cause morselin has never been,
So tempting as it is right now,
