Lustra

Lustra

Lustra, there's something hiding

Behind your immaculate smile

You have always known, so let it outLustra, I fell your anger

Swell the radical in your style, girl

Take the cross you bear and throw it outShe's coming up, coming up

Breathe it in and let it out

Let it go, be yourself, take a shot

It's what you've always known now

You've always known now what you waiting forLustra, it's gonna take as long

As long as it will take

To strike a match to your silence

Take the pain you bear and burn it outShe's coming up, coming up

Breathe it in and let it out

Let it go, be yourself

Take a shot and give it outComing up, coming up

Breathe it in and let it out

Let it go, be yourself, take a shot

It's what you've always known now

You've always known now what you waiting forLustra, don't you know where's no tomorrow

In a sense, there's no way out

Innocence is all you're born with

Inner sense dictates the way you wheel

The way you deal with knowing who you are Lustra, you know where hell is when you

Fight the maze of denial, do it

You've gotta take a shot

Give all you've got for your dreams girlShe's coming up, coming up

Breathe it in and let it out

Let it go, be yourself

Take a shot and give it outComing up, coming up

Breathe it in and let it out

Let it go, be yourself, take a shot

It's what you've always known now

You've always known now
