

Hold On

Bob Mould

Years of our lives
The time we invested
Washed away in a cold sweat dream
Came home at night
All of our light was gone
The missing pieces never fit all along Hold on, hold on, hold on to me
Hold on, hold on, hold on to me Lovers of mine
Friends I abandoned
It's how I repay my darkest fears
Fragments of time
Shadows and memories
They can't be saved, I watch them floating out to sea Hold on, hold on, hold on to me
Hold on, hold on, hold on to me
