I Don't Fall in Love

The Viper Creek Band

Lately I've been skippin' stones and starin' up at trees,
Waiting by the phone and sometimes I forget to breathe,
Ever since I met that girl, I haven't been myself,
It might be okay to feel this way if I was someone else,But I don't fall in love, and I don't lose my head,
I don't dream all day, then lay awake all night in bed,
I don't ever feel, like I could never get enough,
This ain't like me, I don't fall in love

I wonder if she's on the town, out there havin' fun,
Wearing that tight silky dress, slow dancing with someone,
By now I hope she's safe at home, combin' down her hair,
Then drftin' off to sleep alone, but I don't really care,'Cause I don't fall in love, and I don't lose my head,
I don't dream all day, then lay awake all night in bed,
I don't ever feel, like I could never get enough,
This ain't like me, I don't fall in loveLove can be persistent,
I've always kept my distance,
But I'm losing my resistance,
So what do I do now?
