

Stranger

Goldfrapp

Stranger, when you look at me
Eyes strong as steal
Light as day Born a mystery
You're the in between
Boy or girl Wilder, than I've known before
Fire rushes through
Every vain
With a smile that sings
You'll be killing me tenderly Every word is soft as fur
I'm drifting deep deeper in Stranger, will you remember
Stranger, make me remember you Taken by the crowd a tide
It's there then gone do or die Stranger, I dream of you and Stranger, I will never know
