Carry On

Kid Ink

I tell her, don't stop, keep it going
So fly, no luggage, baby carry on
Carry on, go on carry on
Drop it down and take it to the moon
Don't stop, keep it going
So fly, no luggage, baby carry on
Carry on, go on carry on
Keep doing what you doing
I can see you on now
You on that new shit
I see you on that new shit
I see you on that new shit
Just keep it true
And I'll never confuse it'Cause ain't nobody fly like you
Like what I see, got a birds eye view
You're what I've been waiting for 2x2, got me all wrapped up like Erykah Badu, so
Drama freak out, no luggage, go on carry on Smile shine bright like a canary stone
Hell's on, walking through this lobby like a runaway
Then I'm on to your game, can I come play
Just rolled up, going for the high score
Full attention girl you something that I can't ignore
Live a life that these other dames can't afford
There's a target on your ass, and it made me fallI tell her, don't stop, keep it going
So fly, no luggage, baby carry on
Carry on, go on carry on
Drop it down and take it to the moon
Don't stop, keep it going
So fly, no luggage, baby carry on
Carry on, go on carry on
Keep doing what you doing
I can see you on now
You on that new shit
I see you on that new shit
I see you on that new shit
Just keep it true
And I'll never confuse itIt's more than the physical Everything you do is so original

Make all these other bitches look invisible
Dressed up, every night is your fashion show
Got tans all around from the panel
Swear that you jump right out of the style channel
Can't nobody in hell see you like
Camera will never show it all off
Just a sample, paying through
Heels just set, carry on Louie
Go ahead show 'em how to pop up money
Crusing, you ain't gotta hide
First class fly, Welcome to the club MelheimI tell her, don't stop, keep it going
So fly, no luggage, baby carry on
Carry on, go on carry on
Drop it down and take it to the moon
Don't stop, keep it going
So fly, no luggage, baby carry on
Carry on, go on carry on
Keep doing what you doing
I can see you on now
You on that new shit
I see you on that new shit
I see you on that new shit
Just keep it true
And I'll never confuse it
