

Intentions

Envoi

Let go, or give me all of you, give me all you got my love
Don't want to make this, Don't want to make this harder, than it should be
So far all I can see is
Hold my heart and I'll give you all the rules
Haven't we been here once or twice before
Haven't you seen me here
Have you seen me

*I never meant to steal your spotlight
But when I see you, I see all of the shattered bits of consciousness
And confidence was never my intention
But some things are better left unsaid

Let go, or give me all of you, give me all you got my dear
Don't want to shake things, Don't want to shake this up now
To feel alive
Bow down to fear and pride

*I never meant to steal your spotlight
But when I see you, I see all of the shattered bits of consciousness
And confidence was never my intention
But some things are better left unsaid

If you wanted me to leave all you had to do was ask
Wanted to see all you had to do was...
If you wanted me to leave all you had to do was ask
All you had to do was ask

Fate is cruel to you
Fate is cruel to me
