

City Dove

Tori Kelly

Don't know what it's all about
But every time I look around
All I see is how we're holdin' on
Don't ask me what's wrong or right
I don't even know the time
All I know is I'm holdin' on I haven't figured anything out
I haven't figured anything, anything, anything out City dove, fly between the buildings and fences
Soft inside but rough on the edges
Waiting here for something to come just holdin' on, oh oh City dove, fly between the stars and the headlights
Passin' by the clouds and the street signs
Knowing that there's something to come, just holdin' on I don't really know my fate
I just know I'm on my way
There will be mistakes movin' on
I try to get to the heart of it
Fly low but lookin' for Heaven I know, I know I'm holding on I won't figure everything out
I'll never figure everything everything everything out City dove, fly between the buildings and fences
Soft inside but rough on the edges
Waiting here for something to come just holdin' on, oh oh City dove, fly between the stars and the headlights
Passin' by the clouds and the street signs
Knowing that there's something to come, just holdin' on (City dove, you fly high)
(City dove, you fly high)
(City dove, the headlights)
(City dove, the headlights)
(City dove, the street signs)
Waiting here for something to come, just holding on, oh
(City dove, you fly high) Fly between the stars and the headlights
(City dove, you fly high)
(City dove, the headlights) Passing by the clouds and the street signs
(City dove, the headlights)
(City dove, the street signs)
Knowing that there's something to come, just holding on, oh, yeah
