Any Colour

Cutting Crew

I dream, dream of a lonely girl
Who sleeps lost in her lonely world
Any sunset I'd give to you
Any colour that you like, all for you, all for youShe wakes wrapped in her naked room
The air filled with a sweet perfume
Any rainbow I'll save for you
Any colour that you like, all for youI've waited, I've waited so long for you, all for you
To show my true colours come shining throughI dream, dream of a distant girl
Who sleeps lost in her lonely world
In a diamond, I'll shine for you
Any colour that you like, all for you
All for you
