Cupid's Victim

Tiger Army

Without a warning it comes flying-
And when it strikes my world changes, all reason left behind
Without a warning it comes flying-
and its to late to resist it for my fate is sealed
And I know... My heart's no longer mineJust like an arrow through my heart
A feeling so strong
A scarlet fever burns my soul
From this moment onCan't shake this fever from my mind
It burns away all that has passed
And draws me to her side
"A direct hit" the cupid smiles...
Wounded, I fall into delirium
And I know... my heart's no longer mine
