VNV Nation

Put your hand into my hand
Put your head against my head
Put your lips against my lips
Put self consciousness asideNo redemption
No confessions
No distractions
No possessionsLet your blood run through my veins
Blade shall numb you from the pain
No tomorrows, just submittance
No remorse of self indulgenceJust your body
Just your body
Just your body
Just your bodyJust your body on my body
Want your thoughts of me inside
Let your hands run on my skinLet me be the one you need
I shall be the one you feed
All I am and all you see
Is all I will and ever beInvigoration, angulation
Mortal acts of indignation
Put your lips against my lips
Put self consciousness asideInvigoration, angulation
Mortal acts of indignationCrave it all, know no other
Crash your dreams and fall forever
Show me no place you hide behind
Only body soul entwinedLet me be the one you need
I shall be the one you feed
All I am and all you feel
All that will and ever beInvigoration, angulation
Mortal acts of indignation
Just your body on my body
Want your thoughts of me insideNo redemption
No confessions
No distractions
Or possessionsNo tomorrows, just submittance
No remorse of self indulgence
Invigoration, angulation
Mortal acts of indignationMortal acts of VNV Nation
