

Hey Brother

Samiam

Look at my puppy, can you spare a quarter
Playing guitar and stinking up the corner
Patchouli oil and freshly dirty feet
Mom's station wagon is parked down the streetHey brother, hey
Hey brother, hey
Hey brother, hey
Hey brother, heyHey brother, hey
Hey brother, hey
Hey brother, hey
Hey brother, heyWhat ever happened to
What ever happened to
What ever happened to
What ever happened to twisted sisterYour jacket still smells like bleach
Used to say anarchy but now it's peace
Oh boy, Jerry's playing in the park
You've got to be home before dark
Home before dark
Home before dark
Home before darkHey brother, hey
Hey brother, hey
Hey brother, hey
Hey brother, heyHey brother, hey
Hey brother, hey
Hey brother
Hey brother
Hey brother, heyWhat ever happened to
What ever happened to
What ever happened to
What ever happened to twisted sisterI can't even walk down the street
Without some hippy bugging me
Oh God, I'm starving feed me, please
I got sixty bucks, but it's for my tickets
To the dead shows in Sacto
The one's next weekWhat ever happened to
What ever happened to
What ever happened to
What ever happened toWhat ever happened to
What ever happened to
What ever happened to you
