Better Today

Coffey Anderson

[Verse 1]
To see your face, to hear your voice
And oh, to touch you is a dream come true
So Iâ€™m standing here, with my hand held out
Knowing that your love will never fade, I stand amazed without a doubt

[Chorus]
And I wanna hear your voice, in the morning when I rise
I think I know Iâ€™m just a normal man, only made of sand except when youâ€™re by my side
Will you love me, teach me, donâ€™t leave me I pray
And when I, and Iâ€™m thinking of the times
Your hands in mine, together we will stay
You made me better today
Better then I was before
And now my heart can rest and I will search no more
You made me better today, today, today

[Verse 2]
My heart has wings
Oh you take me away
And every prayer Iâ€™ve ever prayed was answered today
So Iâ€™m standing here, with my hand held out
Knowing that my love will never leave
My hearts on my sleeve and now I believe

[Chorus]
And I wanna hear your voice, in the morning when I rise
I think I know Iâ€™m just a normal man, only made of sand except when youâ€™re by my side
Will you love me, teach me, donâ€™t leave me I pray
And when I, and Iâ€™m thinking of the times
Your hands in mine, together we will stay
You made me better today
Better then I was before
And now my heart can rest and I will search no more
You made me better today, today, today

[Verse 3]
I stand proclaimed, true love is here to stay
I stand proclaimed, forever starts today
Todayâ€¦

You made me better today
Than I was before
And now my heart can rest and I will search no more
Cuz you made me better today, than I was before
And now my heart can rest
And I will search no more
You made me better today
Todayâ€¦
Made me better today
