

Always Alone

Sandra van Nieuwland

It's late, you open up the door
I hear your keys drop on the floor
 What I wanna say
Seems like an alphabet awayI'm worried we're in overtime
 Every day another hill to climb
 I need you just the two of us
 Before we bite the dust
 Kiss kiss, on a tired cheek
 Words fire like bullets on me
 What's the point of this love?
We are always aloneGet into bed with tired eyes
 I don't ask what's on your mind
 Like I don't care
 If you only knew how much I miss you dearI'm worried we're in overtime
 Every day another hill to climb
 I need you just the two of us
 Before we bite the dust
 Kiss kiss, on a tired cheek
 Words fire like bullets on me
 What's the point of this love?
We are always aloneI'm waiting for you dear
 But we are at the danger zone
 What if someone else
 Pulls me out of there?
 Would you even care?
 Would you leave the lights on?
 Long long nights
Always aloneI'm worried we're in overtime
 Every day another hill to climb
 I need you just the two of us
 Before we bite the dust
 Kiss kiss, on a tired cheek
 Words fire like bullets on me
 What's the point of this love?
We are always aloneWe are always alone
