

If You're Tarzan, I'm Jane

Martika

I, I can't let you get away
Tonight I'll believe every word that you say
I'm trusting the roll of the dice
The chance to win everything takes a sacrifice And I want you now
I want you so bad
Tell me what to do I'll try anything, I'll be anyone
Take on any task just to have your love
If you're Mr. Right, I'm your claim to fame
If you're Tarzan, I'm Jane, I'm Jane, I'm Jane I'm wrapped in emotional fire
You are the answer to every desire
I, I wanna swing on your vine
Tonight I've got a primitive appetite And I want you now
I need you so bad
Tell me what to do I'll try anything, I'll be anyone
Take on any task just to have your love
If you're Mr. Right, I'm your claim to fame
If you're Tarzan, I'm Jane, I'm Jane, I'm Jane I'll try anything, I'll be anyone
I'll try anything If you were Marc Anthony
Then my name would be Cleopatra
If you were my Romeo then you can bet
I'm gonna be your Juliet I'll try anything, I'll be anyone
Take on any task just to have your love
If you're Mr. Right, I'm your claim to fame
If you're Tarzan, I'm Jane I'll try anything, I'll be anyone
Take on any task just to have your love
I'll pay any price, even change my name
If you're Tarzan, I'm Jane I'll try anything, I'll be anyone
Take on any task just to have your love
If you're Mr. Right, I'm your claim to fame
If you're Tarzan, I'm Jane I'll try anything, I'll be anyone
Take on any task just to have your love
If you're Mr. Right, I'm your claim to fame
If you're Tarzan, I'm Jane I'll try anything, I'll be anyone
Take on any task just to have your love
If you're Mr. Right, I'm your claim to fame
If you're Tarzan, I'm Jane
