

Worth Fighting For

Judas Priest

You said I could never find a way to ease your mind
But where I go you wind up in the dust
I tried so hard to have you reach another side of me
Instead you went to nowhere and forgot So I wander on
Asking where you might have gone
From what I knew before
Some things are worth fighting for Desert heat can wear you down, but still I'm rollin' through Did I see your figure in the haze?
I am driven by your thirst, to quench myself of love
The sun beats on me for the price I pay So I wander on
Asking where you might have gone
From what I knew before
Some things are worth fighting for, yeah Night road leads me to a town of dust
I'm beckoned by the glow
Of kerosene and tumble weed
They're calling out, forevermore
Worth fighting for I'm leading in the wind
Head bowed down from what I saw
My shadow far a friend
There's some things are worth fighting for So I'm moving on
Asking where you might have gone
From what I knew before
Some things are worth fighting for, yeah Worth fighting for
